

To whom it may concern

This letter serves as a reference letter for Amro Badr who worked for Reliable English School (RES) Haiphong from March 2019 until July 2020.

During this time Amro taught a variety of ages, from kids to high school children. He taught a wide range of English, from the basics up until preparation for IELTS Foundation. In each of his classes, he managed to create an open and lively learning environment where students showed steady improvements and were comfortable expressing themselves. With international experience, Amro has a precise and analytical mind and a keen understanding of how to organize complex tasks.

As a teacher and co-worker, Amro was very friendly, thoughtful, and hard working. He consistently took initiative in helping co-workers in need and was always willing to cover absent teachers' classes whenever he was available. Amro was rarely absent and always punctual. He showed a professional attitude towards his work that shone through in the classroom.

With his experience and reliable attitude, I am very pleased and confident in Amro's capabilities. I have the utmost confidence he will utilize his excellent work-ethic and lively personality towards positively contributing to the working and learning environment of any organization.
